BOISE PHIL CREATES NEW FAMILY PACKAGE FOR POPS, INCLUDING UPCOMING HOLIDAY POPS CONCERTS

In order to accommodate the growing number of families attending Boise Phil events, the Boise Phil has created various family packages with discounted pricing.

November 7, 2018—After a successful showing at the first concert of their new Pops Series, the Boise Phil has decided to now offer family packages to make the concert hall a more affordable experience for those wishing to bring their families. Family packages will be available for the Holiday Pops and Hollywood Hits shows, in December and March, respectively.

Packages vary in price due to different family sizes, and start at $50 for Holiday pops and $60 for Hollywood Hits. Those wanting to buy tickets should contact the Boise Phil box office for prices. Family packages apply to adults and their children 17 years and younger.

It should be noted that if patrons attended the Boise Phil performance of Star Wars with live orchestra, they are welcome to put the price of their single ticket toward a Pops package to see the next two Pops shows at a discounted price.

Holiday Pops is a crowd favorite and features works such as Sleigh Ride, O Holy Night, works by Tchaikovsky, and a crowd sing-along, Joyeux Noel. The program will showcase the Master Chorale as well as guest conductor, Chelsea Tipton II.

Hollywood Hits will show classic film clips on the big screen while the orchestra plays the scores live. See and hear favorites such as Raiders of the Lost Ark, James Bond, Superman, Ben-Hur, Rocky, and more.

For more information about the upcoming Pops Series concerts, please visit our website at boisephil.org or call our office at 208 344.7849.
