BOISE PHIL YOUTH ORCHESTRA PERFORMS WITH 11 YOUTH ORCHESTRAS FROM AROUND THE COUNTRY

Boise, ID - (May 17, 2021) Boise Phil Youth Orchestra Music Director Jen Drake is excited to announce the Boise Phil Youth Orchestra’s collaborative performance with the Santa Fe Youth Symphony Association, available to view May 15 and 16 at https://www.sfysa.org

Over the last six months, BPYO has collaborated with the Santa Fe Youth Symphony Association and eleven other youth orchestras from around the country to perform American Landscape by Soon Hee Newbold.

“It was great to collaborate with other orchestras across the country, knowing that we were all working together towards one common goal.” Said BPYO Music Director Jen Drake. “Many thanks to William Waag and Ryan Finn for putting this all together.”

This collaborative performance provided an opportunity for BPYO musicians to gain new skills, meet young musicians from across the United States, and perform in a way that was originally never thought possible.

BPYO is thrilled to bring you this performance and looks forward to continued collaboration with the Santa Fe Youth Orchestra Alliance.

BOISE PHIL
The Boise Phil’s mission is to reflect the energy and heartbeat of our communities through invigorating musical experiences that touch the human spirit. Serving the Treasure Valley, the Boise Phil was established 60 years ago but traces its artistic roots back to 1885. It is the longest continuously running cultural organization in the state, and one of the longest in the country. In addition to the professional orchestra, the Boise Phil also includes the Boise Phil Master Chorale and the Boise Phil Youth Orchestras.
